

BUTLER CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

Fusion Cafe

PRESENTS

vince martell

Live In Concert
Saturday, March 27

vince martell vanilla fudge lead guitarist and his live group performing the music of vanilla fudge, jimi hendrix, janis joplin and other sixties greats...

vince martell, u.s. navy veteran and long island music hall-of-famer, created the vanilla fudge's psychedelic guitar in their 1967 chart-topper, "you keep me hangin' on" it is ranked the number four heaviest guitar riff of all time by guitar magazine.

vanilla fudge toured with hendrix and shared the stage with joplin, the who, cream, the doors-led zeppelin opened for them!

vince martell group features denver recording artist, peg pearl, of love-in: a musical celebration with ben vereen, vince martell, buddy miles, strawberry alarm clock, jesse colin young, peter and gordon and more! (airing on pbs jan 2010).

**special guest: percussionist, joe brennan, drummer for the pigeons, the group that later became the vanilla fudge.

hot buffet included with $15 admission

fusion cafe at butler church of the nazarene

188 kiel avenue butler nj 07405 (gps: 10 jerico road, butler)

doors open: 6:30 pm showtime: 7:30 pm

www.vincemartell.com

www.butlercommunitychurch.org

